Charity Running Bib Application for the Falmouth Road Race

Run to create a world where girls are safe, healthy and successful for life!

Welcome and Thank You!

Dear Athlete,

Before we get started, we would like to thank you for considering Title IX Girls Running Club as a beneficiary of your hard work, training, dedication and fundraising goals. We realize there are many worthy causes out there today, and are honored that you would like to be a part of our team to promote the psychological, emotional and physical health of preteen and adolescent girls.

In this package you will find an application to join the charity team. Once you've completed the application you can email or mail back to us for consideration. Once reviewed, you will be contacted with next steps and pertinent materials to help you expand your network, surpass your fundraising goals and get you through the highs and lows of training.

Race bibs are obtained through an affiliation with Title IX Girls Running Club have non-negotiable fundraising minimums determined by the race organizers and Title IX Girls Running Club. Please note, in the event that you do not meet your minimum fundraising requirement your credit card will be charged the difference.

Still interested? Let's do this.
